SUMMER 2015 WeHo REC READER

The WeHo Rec Reader is published three times a year by the City of West Hollywood's Recreation Services Division.

FROM THE DIRECTOR

Welcome Rec Readers!

Summer is everyone's favorite season! It's full of memories of that sense of freedom on the last day of school; days spent riding your bike with friends, playing at the park or on the beach, celebrations and county fairs!

West Hollywood's summer starts with a birthday (#WeHo@30), 40 days of West Hollywood Pride activities, and Christopher Street West's 45th LA PRIDE Festival in West Hollywood June 12-14, 2015. Additionally, the Recreation Division is proud to announce a fantastic - and historic - US Tennis Association Tournament at Plummer Park, June 5-7, 2015. See more about this on page 4. Come out and play tennis, watch tennis, celebrate equality and kick off your own Summer 2015 PRIDE season of freedom!

And speaking of memories, remember those resolutions you made at the beginning of the year? If you've neglected them over the last few months we have the solution to bring them back into focus. Come out to the park this summer for weBox which combines basic exercises and techniques from boxing to promote a fun and effective aerobic workout. weCardio is an intense body sculpting class that is high energy and high intensity! weStroll is a fun stroller-based workout that gives you the opportunity to spend time with your baby while you enjoy the outdoors and work on your fitness goals!

And weYoga emphasizes integrating your mind, body, energy, and breath within a supportive environment. Please check page 6 for the complete list of classes and schedules.

Camp West Hollywood, our summer day camp program is ready to provide a safe, fun and healthy environment for the younger set. Each week features a different theme filled with activities that will spark your child's creativity and keep them moving. See our special Summer Camp pull-out section in this edition for more information on Camp West Hollywood as well as our very popular Specialty Camps for kids with a keen interest in science, engineering, swimming, basketball and more.

Our Recreation Services staff is dedicated to making your Summer 2015 season of freedom fun, enjoyable and healthy. To register for one or more of our programs, visit us at www.weho.org/recreation.

Here is to health, wellness, and Summer!

WEST HOLLYWOOD PARK PHASE II

Progress continues on the development of the West Hollywood Park Project. On February 2, 2015, City Council confirmed the Project's final design and authorized staff to proceed with the development of construction documents. Council also reviewed and provided comments on proposed opportunities for a mural art program for the Aquatic and Recreation Center; reviewed updates to Council-requested studies for the off-leash dog area and additional automated parking; reviewed the preliminary construction phasing strategy for the Project; directed staff to return to Council with further development on the design of the grand stair and clarification of the relationship between the Library and new Aquatic and Recreation Center buildings; and directed staff to return to City Council at 50% completion of the Construction Documents Phase for authorization to bid the project for construction.

For more information, including a fly-through video of the new Aquatic and Recreation Center, visit the project website: www.weho.org/whparkproject.

WEHO PRIDE TENNIS TOURNAMENT PRESENTED BY iTENNIS

June 5 - 7, 2015

Location: Plummer Park Tennis Courts, 7377 Santa Monica Blvd.
Men's & Women's Singles
Same-Gender Couples Doubles

The City of West Hollywood is proud to host the second USTA sanctioned tennis tournament for same gender couples. The first such event in history was held at the Plaza Racquet Club in Palm Springs in March 2015.

The USTA made history on January 14, 2015 by adding same-gender couples doubles tournaments to its sanctioned list of competitive events in its popular adult division. Up until this date all of the adult family doubles teams were husband and wife. In a USA TODAY Sports article published on January 14, CEO and president, Katrina Adams of the White Plains, N.Y. based USTA said, "We've always been about equality and our focus the last 10 years or so been even more on diversity and inclusion, and this is another way of being inclusive."

In the same article, Hall of Famer Billie Jean King was quoted as saying, "This is a great and important step forward for tennis. Tennis is a sport that is equally fun and beneficial for everyone, so it's nice to know that going forward, we'll enjoy a greater sense of equality between the lines in adult competition. The makeup of our families in our world is changing, and I'm thrilled to see that tennis also is recognizing that change, and making it easier for same-gender couples to compete."

A player party and celebrity tennis exhibition will take place as part of the L.A. Pride Kick off at the conclusion of finals matches on June 7, 2015.

To register for the tournament, enter online at itennisweho.com or tennislink.usta.com.

National Night Out

Tuesday, August 4, 2015

This year marks the 32nd anniversary of the National Night Out program, which began in 1984 as an effort to promote involvement in crime prevention activities, Sheriff's-Community partnerships, neighborhood camaraderie and to send a message to criminals letting them know that neighborhoods are organized and fighting back.

National Night Out enhances the relationship between neighbors and law enforcement while bringing back a true sense of community and provides a great opportunity to bring Sheriff's and neighbors together under positive circumstances.

National Night Out gives Neighborhood Watch groups an opportunity to host large scale block parties with barbecues, live music, and lots of free giveaways in a festive setting. The Recreation Division participates by hosting Movie Night in the Park in Plummer Park. Major commercial establishments get involved, such as The Gateway in West Hollywood.
